One of the prettiest and thoroughly enjoyable entertainments of the summer was that on Friday afternoon of last week when Mrs. C. E. D. Egerton entertained three tables of Rook and Bridge, in honor of the guest and sister of Mrs. W. G. Lowry, at her home on Scales avenue. Mrs. Egerton greeted her guests as they arrived giving to each a score card, which directed them to one of the six tables. After several progressions the scores were taken and Mrs. Isaac London and Mrs. H. L. Guthrie cut for the Bridge prize, Mrs. London winning a bottle of Mary Garden perfume. In Rook Mrs. Ed Allen and Miss Wilmer Stansill tied and cut, Miss Stansill winning a box of correspondence cards. Assisted by Mrs. Claude Williams, Mrs. Egerton served delicious frozen fruit salad, ham, and cheese and pimento sandwiches, pickle, ice tea.

The Buick Model K-Six-49

Buick Seven-Passenger Touring Car

THE BUICK Model-K-Six-49 is a big, roomy, open car for seven persons, with a range of service in keeping with its powerful Valve-in-Head motor. The long wheelbase, the extra size tonneau, the completeness of all details making for comfort and convenience give it an air of unlimited capacity that is amply borne out by its continued and consistent performance.

This body is divided by a double cowl, into which the folding seats disappear when not in service. These extra seats are so arranged as to give liberal space to all occupants in the tonneau, thereby avoiding any possible crowding.

The slanting windshield braces form the front support for the high-grade top, which is also equipped with well-made side curtains that swing open with the doors.

Tricotine and Jersey Dresses

The season's best buy.

The styles were created by New York's leading dress makers. The dresses are man tailored and tub silk lined.

The cloth used in these dresses stands alone for quality and finish.

We are showing these in the Fall colors, Taupe, Grey, Tan, Reindeer, Bisque, and all shades of Brown.

We are also showing Tricotine and Jersey combined with satin, which makes a beautiful combination.

Serge dresses are the big end of our business---nothing better than man's wear serge.

We are very proud of our selection, and invite your inspection.
